Bottled Wine

White

Cupcake Sauvignon Blanc (New Zealand)
Flavors of Meyer lemon, white nectarine and key lime integrate with subtle hints of grapefruit, gooseberry and citrus.

Duck Pond Pinot Gris (Oregon)
Bright aromas of pear, lemon and peach jump from the glass with hints of herbs and flowers.

J. Lohr Chardonnay (California)
The rich texture and balance offers flavors of ripe pear, apricot, citrus cream, hazelnut and a hint of oak.

Oyster Bay Sauvignon Blanc (New Zealand)
Brilliant clarity, aromatic flavors and refreshing zest. Citrus notes and tropical flavors youthful, elegant and fresh.

Red

Bogle Zinfandel (California)
This supple and full-bodied vintage begins with brambleberries and raspberry jam.

Duck Pond Pinot Noir (Oregon)
Vibrant black cherry mingles with notes of molasses and caramel while hints of iris and spearmint.

J. Lohr Cabernet (California)
Ripe fruit aromas of black cherry and currant are accented by notes of toasted pastry, hazelnut and vanilla.

J. Lohr Merlot (California)
Varietal aromas of black plum, black currant, and violet are elevated by a signature of baking spices and toasted pastry.

Rosé

Cupcake Rosé (California)
Elegant flavors of watermelon, strawberry and white nectarine lead to a silky texture and a refreshing finish.

French Blue Rosé (France)
The beautiful floral bouquet is reminiscent of lilacs and summer berries, while the palate bursts with bright citrus and luscious strawberry notes.

Sparkling Wine

Saint Hilaire Brut (France)
Fresh, lively, crisp and dry.
